hits such as "L-O-V-E Love", "Wynners' Rhapsody" (溫拿狂想曲) and "Sha La-La-La-La", all of which have left an indelible mark on the Chinese music landscape with their timeless charm. The band will be celebrating their 50th anniversary since their debut in the 1970s, and this final tour will see the quintet stage farewell concerts across the globe to commemorate five decades of their musical legacy.

A star who needs no introduction in the Cantopop industry, Hong Kong native Miriam Yeung is a veteran actress and singer who made her debut in the entertainment industry in 1995 after clinching second runner-up in the TVB 14th Annual New Talent Singing Awards Competition. The multi-talented performer has been an iconic figure on the silver screen, having starred in over 40 films to date. Celebrated as one of the most acclaimed performers in Hong Kong, Yeung has won countless prestigious accolades for her music, and has earned numerous top female artist awards throughout nearly three decades of her career. With more than 50 albums under her belt, she is famed for her award-winning tracks such as "Small City" (小城大事) and "Sisters" (姐妹).

As an icon of the Cantopop and Mandopop worlds, and a household name with a successful showbiz career spanning over three decades, Leo Ku is known for his unique falsetto and chart-topping hits. After releasing his first album in 1989, he instantly became a sensation and an established name in Hong Kong in the 1990s on the success of his chart-topping Cantopop tracks. Ku has since gone on to release several popular albums, and has collaborated with many industry luminaries. From classics like "Love Coming Home" (爱回家) and "Belated Love" (爱得太迟) to fan favourites such as "Shower" and "The Genius and the Idiot" (天才与白痴), Ku's music has touched millions of fans.

All three concerts come under Marina Bay Sands' Sands Live Season banner, an expanded initiative of its long-running Sands Live series to bring in top entertainment acts from Asia across the integrated resort's venues. Since relaunching in March 2023, the IR has staged spectacular performances from artistes such as Joey Yung, Hacken Lee, Zhao Chuan, Richie Jen, and Korean superstars PSY and RAIN.
