Sands Live returns to Marina Bay Sands with stellar line-up of top entertainment acts

Pop megastar Joey Yung to kick off the return of Sands Live – bringing new star-studded concerts and events to the integrated resort

Sands Live returns to Marina Bay Sands in March 2023 with a stellar line-up of the finest in entertainment.

SINGAPORE (8 February 2023) – Sands Live is making a long-anticipated return to Marina Bay Sands with a star-studded line-up of renowned artistes and celebrities.

As part of an expanded initiative to bring in top entertainment acts to Singapore, Sands Live will be expanded from its original concert series, emerging with a brand-new concept that showcases the biggest stars from Asia and beyond, across venues and presentation styles.

Sands Live's official return will be kicked off by multi-award-winning pop singer and actress Joey Yung, who will be holding her Love In Marina Bay Sands concert on 10 March as part of her world tour.

Crowned the most influential Hong Kong-based female singer by Forbes in 2014, Yung has been at the forefront of the music industry for close to three decades. For the Singapore stop, audiences can look forward to a night of familiar classics and new songs, such as “Disheartened” (心淡), “My Pride” (我的驕傲) and “Pretty Crazy”. Yung will be performing live at Sands Grand Ballroom, Level 5.

Joey Yung will take centre stage at Marina Bay Sands to kick off the return of Sands Live.

First unveiled in 2014, Sands Live has attracted globally acclaimed performers such as The Rolling Stones, Michael Bublé, Aaron Kwok and Celine Dion.

Mr Paul Town, Chief Operating Officer of Marina Bay Sands, said: “Sands Live began in 2014 as a series of up close and intimate concerts. With international travel returning strongly, now is the right time to relaunch the concept in a bigger and bolder way, bringing more firepower to Singapore’s entertainment scene and expanding beyond the four walls of a concert hall. We are reimagining entertainment like never before, tapping into our network of celebrities and leveraging our diverse range of world-class amenities across the property.”

More acts will be announced in the coming months in what promises to be a thrilling year of entertainment at Marina Bay Sands.

Tickets to Joey Yung's concert will go on sale tomorrow, 9 February via Marina Bay Sands' website. Sands Rewards LifeStyle members will get to enjoy 10% off ticket prices. For more ticketing information, please refer to the table below or visit the webpage.
