International show La Clique to debut at Sands Theatre at Marina Bay Sands this May

*The cabaret style production will be the first long-running theatrical performance featuring an international cast
since Circuit Breaker*

SINGAPORE (12 April 2021) – Olivier award-winning spectacular La Clique will make its debut at the iconic Sands Theatre at Marina Bay Sands for a limited season, in what will be the first theatrical performance featuring an international cast to return to the venue since Singapore's Circuit Breaker in April last year.

Press Release

Filled with heart-stopping moments, humour and spellbinding acts, La Clique is a theatrical phenomenon featuring a unique blend of circus, comedy, and contemporary cabaret variety, set to a thrilling live soundtrack. Since it was first launched in 2004, the show has performed to sold-out audiences in cities such as Adelaide, Brighton, Edinburgh, Melbourne, Montreal, New York and Sydney.

In Singapore, La Clique will run at Sands Theatre for an eight-week-long limited season from 29 May to 18 July, with eight performances a week. The groundbreaking show is produced by Sliding Doors Entertainment, in collaboration with Unusual Entertainment and Marina Bay Sands.

Accommodating up to 250 guests per show, the venue will be transformed into an immersive 360-degree space that allows for a more intimate experience, with every seat in the house enabling theatre-goers to view all the action on stage.

Mr Milan Rokic, CEO of Sliding Doors Entertainment, said, "Sliding Doors Entertainment in partnership with Unusual Entertainment, are thrilled to bring back the excitement of international theatre to Singapore, following a year of hardship for the community. La Clique's cast of amazing performers cannot wait to bring smiles, laughter and amazement to our audiences.

"We would like to thank our Official Hospitality Partner Marriott Bonvoy, our Official Partner Klook and the Singapore Tourism Board for all their support in assisting us to bring La Clique to Singapore. We would also like to thank Marina Bay Sands and Base Entertainment Asia for their support and assistance in staging this show."

Marina Bay Sands' Senior Vice President of Resort Operations, Mr Paul Town, said, "Marina Bay Sands is excited to partner with Sliding Doors Entertainment and Unusual Entertainment to stage the award-winning international show La Clique at Sands Theatre, which will be the first long-running theatrical production boasting an international cast since the pandemic hit last year. As a leading entertainment destination, supporting events like these represents a significant step towards reviving the show-going experience at Marina Bay Sands and in Singapore."

"We are delighted to support La Clique's debut at Marina Bay Sands, as part of the gradual resumption of live performances. The return of such international shows is a testament to Singapore's attractiveness as a destination for world-class entertainment offerings, as well as our ability to host such events safely. We look forward to welcoming the performance to Singapore, and will be working closely with the organisers for a safe and successful run," said Ms Jean Ng, Executive Director Attractions, Entertainment & Tourism Concept Development for Singapore Tourism Board.

Press Release

“We are thrilled to be the official hospitality partner of the Olivier award-winning spectacular La Clique,” said Mr Rajeev Menon, President, Asia Pacific (excluding China), Marriott International. “Our collaboration with La Clique drives our members’ passion for entertainment by providing them access to exclusive packages and unforgettable experiences.”

La Clique Singapore will boast an impressive line-up of acts, including acrobatic roller-skating duo The Skating Willers, sword swallower and fire breather Heather Holliday, jaw-dropping acrobat Stephen Williams performing La Clique’s celebrated “Bath Boy” routine, and professional Hula Hoop artist and entertainer Lisa Lottie. These breathtaking talents will be presided over by MC Bernie Dieter, a world-renowned cabaret artist, songwriter and performance artist described by the media as the “undisputed Queen of punk cabaret”.
