FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jackie Chan to attend Gala Premiere of “POLICE STORY 2013” at Marina Bay Sands

Marina Bay Sands continues to be the venue of choice for movie premieres

Singapore (11 December, 2013) – Marina Bay Sands is set to wrap up the year on a high with its seventh movie premiere to date -- Jackie Chan’s eagerly-anticipated POLICE STORY 2013.

POLICE STORY 2013 is the latest installment under the successful ‘Police Story’ action-drama franchise. The last installment was “New Police Story” in 2004. Directed by Ding Sheng, who previously collaborated with Jackie Chan in “Little Big Soldier”, the movie premiere will take place at MasterCard Theatres at Marina Bay Sands on 17 December.

Press Release

Jackie Chan stars alongside Chinese actor Liu Ye, best known for his role in Postman in the Mountains, where he was nominated for Best Supporting Actor at China's 1999 Golden Rooster Awards. Liu Ye also starred in American movie Dark Matter, co-starring Meryl Streep and Aiden Quinn which won the Alfred Sloan Award at the 2007 Sundance Film Festival.

The star-studded action blockbuster follows a strong line-up of premieres at MasterCard Theatres this year— including “The Grandmaster” held in January; Japanese movie “The After-Dinner Mysteries (Nazotoki wa Dinner no Ato de)”; homegrown director Anthony Chen’s “Ilo Ilo”, which has won multiple awards since its premiere; Korean blockbuster “Cold Eyes” in August; Chinese-US romantic-comedy “My Lucky Star” in September and French/Chinese movie “The Nightingale” (Le promeneur d’oiseau) in November as part of ScreenSingapore.

POLICE STORY 2013 opens Asia-wide on 24 December.
