“Marina Bay Sands has built a reputation for attracting a stellar line-up of international stars and movie premieres and is proud to be the destination of choice for Gala Premieres, such as POLICE STORY 2013. Having established a strong standing in Asia, we hope to keep this momentum going by bringing more international stars of similar calibre to Singapore,” added Mr. George Tanasijevich.

The star-studded action blockbuster follows a strong line-up of premieres at MasterCard Theatres this year— including “The Grandmaster” held in January; Japanese movie “The After-Dinner Mysteries (Nazotoki wa Dinner no Ato de)”; home-grown director Anthony Chen’s “Ilo Ilo”, which has won multiple awards since its premiere; Korean blockbuster “Cold Eyes” in August; Chinese-US romantic-comedy “My Lucky Star” in September and French/Chinese movie “The Nightingale” (Le promeneur d’oiseau) in November as part of ScreenSingapore.
