Waku Ghin

Introduction

Waku Ghin showcases the brilliance of Chef Tetsuya Wakuda in his only establishment outside of his world-famous Sydney restaurant, offering a repertoire of experiences spanning a contemporary bar, private dining and its signature Chef's Table.

From culinary origins to design aesthetics, Waku Ghin is inspired by Chef Tetsuya's Japanese roots and love for nature. The culinary maestro pays ode to his heritage through the use of prized seasonal ingredients from various Japanese prefectures – from Toyama kanburi to Hokkaido uni, and wasabi from Shizuoka, Chef Tetsuya's birthplace – to offer diners the best of Japan.

At The Bar at Waku Ghin, the talented bartending team showcases Japanese-style mixology through a seamless marriage of Japanese cocktail techniques with prized spirits. The extensive list of over 100 cocktails, rare sakes and whiskeys accompanies an expanded à la carte bar menu offered in a 24-seater extended bar dining space, featuring Chef Tetsuya's timeless cuisine along with pastas, donburis, indulgent bar bites, and exquisite desserts.

Waku Ghin's signature Chef's Table experience remains the ultimate pilgrimage for gourmands. The bespoke dining journey is a sensory feast of craftsmanship on display, as guests enjoy an enhanced degustation menu that offers a new selection of fresh grill items, which include premium beef cuts and pristine seafood. Draw a close to the journey with intricate desserts and digestifs at the dessert room overlooking the glistening Marina Bay waterfront.

Nestled within Waku Ghin is the Sushi Room, an exclusive private dining room meticulously designed and thoughtfully crafted to evoke the charm of a Kyoto ryokan. Helmed by sushi chef Zennami Shinpei, the bespoke sushi omakase experience features intricate creations spotlighting top-grade fish and finest seasonal delicacies of Japan. Pair the experience with a selection of Japanese whisky and Waku Ghin's exclusive sake.

Designed by award-winning Japanese designer Yohei Akao, the restaurant interior boasts a remarkable use of Japanese natural materials and craftsmanship. Diners are greeted by a majestic two-tonne stone sculpture from Shikoku, Japan, at the entrance, and at the Chef's Table room, time-honoured carpentry by craftsmen from Shikoku, Japan, is imbued in a dining table forged using Kaba Zakura (Japanese cherry). Abstract calligraphy paintings by Japanese artist Shiro Tsujimura adorn the swivel wooden shelves at the restaurant's extended bar dining area, and Chef Tetsuya's personal imprint is also found through his personal art collection, interspersed throughout the restaurant.

Since its 2010 opening, the restaurant has received wide critical acclaim and numerous international accolades. After obtaining its first One Michelin Star in the Singapore Michelin Guide in 2016, Waku Ghin went on to clinch Two Michelin Stars in the 2017 edition and retained its Two Star rating from 2018 to 2023.

The Team

Tetsuya Wakuda

Chef Tetsuya Wakuda grew up in the Japanese town of Hamamatsu. At the age of 22, with only a very limited grasp of English, his adventurous spirit led him to Australia. In 1982, Chef Tetsuya arrived in Sydney, with nothing more than a small suitcase and a love of food. From his humble beginnings as a kitchen hand, it did not take Chef Tetsuya long to discover he had a flair for cooking.

In 1989, he opened his first restaurant, Tetsuya's, in a tiny shopfront in Sydney. The popular restaurant flourished and Chef Tetsuya's reputation grew. Always fully booked, Tetsuya's relocated to a larger space in 2000 and has consistently been included on the S.Pellegrino's World's 50 Best Restaurants list, as voted for by the culinary world's top food critics and chefs. Considered by many as Australia's finest chef, he ventured into Singapore in 2010 and has won critical acclaim for Waku Ghin since then. Chef Tetsuya was also recipient of the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award by Asia's 50 Best Restaurants 2015. In April 2022, Chef Tetsuya debuted WAKUDA Singapore – his second restaurant at Marina Bay Sands – in partnership with 50 Eggs Hospitality Group. A second WAKUDA opened at The Venetian® Resort Las Vegas in June 2022.
