In the lead up to the red carpet event, activities began at 10:00 a.m. at The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands. A specially constructed inverted room allowed the public, who appeared to be suspended from the ceiling, to create unique photo opportunities. Spider-Man also made a special appearance in the inverted room as well as the red carpet, where he sprang into action.

Marina Bay Sands' Corporate Social Responsibility programme, Sands for Singapore, gave back to the local community by inviting hundreds of youth for an exclusive opportunity to see the stars up-close at the Skating Rink and attend the press conference, enabling a larger part of the local community to enjoy the best of global entertainment on the resort's unique property. The young fans were thrilled to meet their favorite superhero in real life.

“Thank you Sands for Singapore for inviting us to this special event! I have always watched Spider-Man on TV and I am really excited to see him in person at Marina Bay Sands and be so close to all the stars in the movie. I really love the Spider-Man mask and hat they gave us so that I will always remember this event,” said Muhammad Syazwi Bin Hasan, 17.
