

“I Must Have Changed Several Times Since Then”

Congratulations, you made a character!

But it is more much more important to have character than to just look good!

Let's work together to give them a personality!

Use the grid below to create a well-rounded character, maybe you want to have a mad tea party with them – maybe you don't – but make sure they are as interesting and as wonderful as you are!

Tada! Your characters are so more wholesome with a personality!
Now let's write them a story. After all, it is their un-birthday and they deserve a present.

Many stories have an introduction, body and conclusion which seems like a good recipe for a great story. While you are at it, let's throw in some drama to keep it interesting. It may seem a tad daunting but as the story goes; begin at the beginning and keep going until the end and before you know it, you will be putting the Wonder back in Wonderland.
